

Dr Chris Wilson

Chris Wilson has been on ADA NSW Council since 1999 after becoming involved in his local ADA Division (Newcastle) in 1986. Chris served as President, was a member of Federal Council, the CPD Board and many ADA NSW and Federal Committees over the years. After finishing dentistry at the University of Sydney in 1979, Chris worked for 18 months as a salaried dental officer then went to work for a private practice in Raymond Terrace. Six months later he bought the practice and still practices there, although the practice has gone through several expansion phases and Chris built new premises in 2011. Chris has been on the Board since 2016.
