

Dr Tim McAnulty

Tim McAnulty completed Dentistry at Sydney University graduating with Honours in 1977 and in 1978 commenced practice as an assistant dentist in Nyngan on the Central Western Plains of NSW. Over the following two years he provided dental services in both Nyngan and Cobar before concentrating on the Nyngan practice full-time after purchasing it in 1980.

During the 1980s and early 1990s he also worked part-time for NSW Health providing Dental Services for school aged children at the Nyngan Public School Dental Clinic.

In 2004, he completed the Graduate Certificate in Dentistry from Adelaide University and in the same year he and his family moved to Orange where he now owns a private dental practice employing two assistant dentists. Since his move to Orange, Tim has held the positions of Clinical Lecturer Faculty of Dentistry, University of Sydney and Clinical Tutor School of Dentistry, Charles Sturt University at various times.

Tim has been a member of ADA NSW since graduation and has been an active member of the ADA NSW Western Division having held the position of Secretary and he is currently the Chair of the Division. He was elected to the ADA NSW Council in 2016.
